

Indicative

Present

I	anger
you	anger
he/she/it	angers
we	anger
you	anger
they	anger

Present continuous

I	am angering
you	are angering
he/she/it	is angering
we	are angering
you	are angering
they	are angering

Simple past

I	angered
you	angered
he/she/it	angered
we	angered
you	angered
they	angered

Past continuous

I	was angering
you	were angering
he/she/it	was angering
we	were angering
you	were angering
they	were angering

Present perfect

I	have angered
you	have angered
he/she/it	has angered
we	have angered
you	have angered
they	have angered

Present perfect continuous

I	have been angering
you	have been angering
he/she/it	has been angering we	have been angering
you	have been angering
they	have been angering

Past perfect

I	had angered
you	had angered
he/she/it	had angered
we	had angered
you	had angered
they	had angered

Past perfect continuous

I	had been angering
you	had been angering
he/she/it	had been angering we	had been angering
you	had been angering
they	had been angering

Future

I	will anger
you	will anger
he/she/it	will anger
we	will anger
you	will anger
they	will anger

Future continuous

I	will be angering
you	will be angering
he/she/it	will be angering we	will be angering
you	will be angering
they	will be angering

Future perfect

I	will have angered
you	will have angered
he/she/it	will have angered we	will have angered
you	will have angered
they	will have angered

Future perfect continuous

I	will have been angering
you	will have been angering
he/she/it	will have been angering we	will have been angering
you	will have been angering
they	will have been angering

Conditional

Conditional present

I	would anger
you	would anger
he/she/it	would anger
we	would anger
you	would anger
they	would anger

Conditional perfect

I	would have angered
you	would have angered
he/she/it	would have angered we	would have angered
you	would have angered
they	would have angered

Subjunctive

Present subjunctive

I	anger
you	anger
he/she/it	anger
we	anger
you	anger
they	anger

Past perfect subjunctive

I	had angered
you	had angered
he/she/it	had angered
we	had angered
you	had angered
they	had angered

Imperative

Imperative

you	anger
we	Let's anger
you	anger

Participle

Present participle

angering

Conditional present progressive

I	would be angering
you	would be angering
he/she/it	would be angering we	would be angering
you	would be angering
they	would be angering

Conditional perfect progressive

I	would have been angering
you	would have been angering he/she/it	would have been angering we	would have been angering
you	would have been angering
they	would have been angering

Past subjunctive

I	angered
you	angered
he/she/it	angered
we	angered
you	angered
they	angered

Past participle

angered